

Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth to those who keep your covenant.

Psalm 25:4-5

First Sunday in Lent

February 18, 2018

February 18, 2018 – Baptism floods our soul with grace

Today's First Reading recounts the end of the Noah's Ark story. The flood was God's punishment for humanity's sins. The flood destroyed every living thing, except Noah, his family and pairs of animals Noah had taken with him into the ark. Once the flood receded, the first thing Noah and his family did was offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to God. This greatly pleased the Lord, so He made a covenant with Noah and all creatures that He would never again destroy the world by flood. God promised the rainbow as the sign of this pact and to remind Him of this covenant. This was done not because man was so good, for God had just admitted that man's heart is corrupt from birth, but as an act of His mercy. The Responsorial Psalm emphasizes God's invariable fidelity to man, while reminding us of our dependence on Him in order to be faithful, for alone we are unable. When we sin, we betray God's love for us. This is why we reach out to Him. We depend on God to show us the right path; to give us the courage to do what is right. The greatest sign of His mercy is His promise to guide and instruct us. Our Lenten journey of conversion is a surrender to His guidance, for alone we cannot change ourselves. In the Second Reading, the theme is Baptism, seen as a washing to remove sin's contagion. As the ark saved Noah from the flood, so in Baptism are we saved from the drowning flood of sin. Baptism is an appeal to God for a clear conscience, supported by the pledge of Heaven's power to protect us. This is why the Sacraments are so important, because they are backed by Divine power. Baptism is the first building block, the foundation for all the other Sacraments. Today's Gospel shows Jesus going out into the desert to pray and fast for forty days. Prayer and fasting are His protective shield against Satan's temptation. Lent is our time to spiritually fortify ourselves against temptation. The Church allots us this time to share in Christ's 40 days of prayer and fasting. The time is exact: beginning Ash Wednesday, concluding Holy Saturday and excluding the seven Sundays of Lent equal the 40 days. By prayer and self-discipline, we learn to stay more focused on God and are strengthened to resist temptation. These habits of virtue turn our hearts to God and manifest His reign in the world.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

The 2018 Annual Catholic Appeal is our annual tradition that connects us to thousands of people who need our help every day. Our generous gifts to the Appeal help children find safety and hope, families break through desperate situations, marginalized individuals find the strength to rebuild lives of dignity, students in economically challenged communities remain in Catholic school, and seminarians prepare for priestly service in our parishes. We may not be social workers, yet we are at the heart of mercy when we put out resources in the hands of social service programs and parish ministries that help lift people out of poverty. Please be as generous as you can. Every gift makes a difference.

Catholic, please contact Michael Faber, 719-5565 or rcia-stmfairoaks@gmail.com for further information. This is one of the most rewarding ways to say "Yes, Lord, use me to further your kingdom!"

Whoever addresses his brother in an insulting way will answer for it before the Sanhedrin, and whoever calls his brother a fool will be liable to the fires of Gehenna. –Mt 5:22

Reflection: Jesus says that using dehumanizing language is sinful.

Throughout history, groups that have been oppressed – like slaves and Holocaust victims – have first been called names. It also happens to the unborn, who have been called "parasites," "tissue," and "medical waste."

Prayer: Lord, may we affirm one another, including the unborn, with language that inspires respect and love.
